

Tearney's Resolution Serious Blow to Third League Merger

Columbia Team Has Two More On Sick List

Original Resolution, Which Would Have Enabled Proposed

New League To Be Consummated Meets With Such Strong Opposition That It Is Amended

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 13.—Formation of a new league to include the Louisville, Indianapolis and Toledo clubs of the American Association and certain clubs of the International League received a serious setback tonight. A. R. Tearney, of Chicago, president of the Three I League, who offered a resolution requesting the redistricting in all minor league territory, finally amended it to include only leagues of Class B or lower.

The resolution which would have enabled the dissatisfied clubs of the American Association to carry out their merger was received with opposition when presented to a committee appointed to change the constitution of the National Association of Baseball Leagues. Thomas J. Hickey, president of the American Association, and Senator Cooper, attorney for the Kansas City club, were among those who attacked it.

The committee, of which Al T. Baum, of San Francisco, president of the Pacific Coast League, was chairman, held its session behind locked doors, and none of its members would discuss what occurred.

Other Committee Members
The other members of the committee are John H. Farrell, of Auburn, N. Y., secretary of the National Association; J. W. Morris, of Fort Worth, Tex., president of the Texas League; Dan O'Neill, of Hartford, Conn., president of the Eastern Association, and R. L. Blewitt, of Seattle, president of the Northwest League.

When the convention reconvenes at 10 o'clock to-morrow the resolution will be presented for passage. Tearney also will make a fight for the reclassification of all leagues and for the reduction of the present membership of the National Board of Arbitration from ten to five.

"The board is unwieldy at present," Tearney said. "Its members are scattered in all corners of the country. What we should have is a compact board to devote a considerable part of its time to minor league affairs. If an important question is presented to the present board for settlement, it sometimes requires several weeks for a decision to be reached because the issue must be handled by correspondence. The board to govern the minors should be created along the lines of the National Commission."

The bitterness between Jack Hendricks, manager of the Indianapolis club, and the American Association, and James C. McGill, president of the club, that resulted because of McGill's refusal to release Hendricks so he could become manager of the St. Louis Nationals next season, ended tonight.

Hendricks, who previously declared he would rather return to his law practice than manage Indianapolis next season, issued a statement that he had "forgotten the whole affair and would do all he could to win another pennant for Indianapolis in 1918."

He has a long ambition to manage a major league club, and I thought this one, but have been disappointed," Hendricks' statement read. "I am going back to Indianapolis and try to fill up the gap spots caused by the departure of Hendricks for the army and the enlistment of O'Leary in the navy. The whole affair has been forgotten, and I will do all I can to help win another pennant in 1918."

ITHACA, Nov. 13.—That Michigan has a first-class football machine, even better than last fall's eleven, and that the game with Pennsylvania will be one of the greatest gridiron battles of the season, is the opinion of Dr. Al Sharpe, the Cornell head coach, expressed today.

"I will make no prediction of the outcome of the game with Penn next Saturday," said Dr. Sharpe, "because I have not seen Penn play, but Michigan has a first-class team, played wonderful football against Cornell and will give Penn a great battle."

Sharpe stated that Ackert and Pendleton, tackle and fullback, are in bad shape from injuries received before the Michigan game and made worse by their play against the Wolverines. Both these men were taken out of the game early and Ben Reuther, at center did not get against Michigan at all, Trowbridge taking his place throughout the contest. Leg injuries are troubling all three.

Bar of Phoenix Thrice
Victor in Three Days
BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 13.—Those who have followed the winning efforts of W. T. Althouse's Bar of Phoenix during the past three days of the races here have piled up tidy sums. The hay Bartender-Pocket colt registered his third straight victory in as many days today in winning the sixth race on one and a half miles.

That undaunted spirit, that stormy petrel of the fighting main, John T. Dunn, is still with us, however, for last night John Dunn, who is the head of the Broadway Sporting Club, of Brooklyn, will hold its first show "for members only" next Saturday night, with Augie Ratner meeting K. O. Willie Laughlin, the Pennsylvania middleweight, in the main event. A word in time waves nine, so John T. Dunn warns all and sundry that everybody is expected to "show his membership card at the door, as no one will be admitted unless he has been elected a member."

The various fight promoters of this city and state are all suffering from temporary cardiac insufficiency, owing to the expressed statements emanating from Governor Whitman regarding the future of boxing. Mr. Whitman has been quoted as saying that he has no objection to boxing and that bouts may be conducted at any legal club provided they are legally conducted.

The Governor's words are rather cryptic, it seems, for the clubs which have been holding bouts for the last several months are legally entitled to do so. However, Mr. Whitman's remarks are generally interpreted as being favorable to the future of boxing in New York. Only a test case will remove the camouflage from the state official's position, and the Broadway Sporting Club may be the one to clear the air.

Take your last look at the remains, for we are about to clamp down the lid and signal for the Necker to come and cart the poor old body to the cemetery. Deacons McQuinn and Albertus McCoy will officiate at the last obsequies, which will be held this evening at the Clermont Sporting Club chapel, in Brooklyn. Brother Silvey Burns, the president, will say a few words in praise of the lamented relic and then the casket will be taken to the cemetery.

Columbia Team Has Two More On Sick List

Campbell, Guard, and Houlihan, Back, Forced to Take Rest

Two more of the Columbia 'varsity eleven failed to appear in uniform for practice yesterday as a result of physicians' orders. Campbell, the husky substitute guard, who came up from the scrub last Saturday to replace Farer against Hobart, is troubled with water on the knee, and Houlihan, the speedy back, whose kicking has featured Columbia's games since Howard Miller withdrew his competition, has gone stale from overtraining.

Assistant Coach Tom Thorp explained that Houlihan's nerves had inexplicably gone back upon him, but expected him to regain a grip upon himself in time for Saturday's contest with Wesleyan.

A prolonged signal drill and secret formation practice was Coach Metcalf's programme for yesterday afternoon. Both freshmen and 'varsity confined themselves to working out tactics, while the scrub scrimmaged against Manual Training High School.

The Morningside team will have its usual hard midweek workout to-day, with three elevens to choose from for opponents—the battleship Texas, Yonkers High School and De Witt Clinton.

Walker's good work against Carlisle on Saturday marked him for special attention from the coaches, and today Head Coach Keyes had him working in Hahn's place at left half during the whole of the rough work. He continues to please the mentors and looks like a fixture in the position.

Horr and Dominey played the greater part of the day at the right half position. Neither nor Shrader is in very good physical condition. The game with Lebanon Valley on Saturday promises to be no easy affair after all, as the Cadets' line is being built up with heavy aggregation which is likely to cause the cadets some worry.

Walker Promoted To Army Varsity

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 13.—Some changes in the Army's line-up featured the work-out of the soldiers' eleven to-day, notably the shifting of Walker to the 'varsity backfield from the scrub eleven.

Naval Reserve Eleven to Play Fordham Team

A game has been arranged between the Naval Reserve team from the Pelham Bay Park station and the Fordham eleven, to be played at Fordham Field on Saturday, November 24.

As the naval team is composed mostly of college players of ability, a good contest is assured, while the 1,500 seamen and the two bands that will accompany the visiting team will lend a martial spirit to the engagement on the gridiron.

Raymond Deleahanty, the Fordham manager, also announced yesterday that negotiations were pending for a game on Thanksgiving Day with a prominent college eleven. An offer has been received to play away from New York, but a home contest is as preferable.

The Maroon players had their first tough scrimmage since the Georgetown game when they faced the fast Fordham Prep eleven yesterday. The youngsters were ordered on the offensive, and they furnished the collegians a good workout.

Kearns, the Prep's dashing halfback, eluded the primary defense several times on a thrust off tackle. Frank Frisch again was missing, and it is unlikely that he will play in Saturday's game with Cornell. Lawrie and Christie did only light work and neither entered the scrimmage.

When the clouds bank in—and the soul turns blue—
When Fate holds fast, and you can't break through—
When troubles sweep like a tidal wave,
And Hope is a ghost by an open grave,
You have reached the test in a frame of mind
Where only the quitters fall behind,
Where the far call breaks on the sleeper's dream,
"Only the game fish swims up stream."

The Sportlight

In our minor league opinion Colonel John Trotwood Moore has sounded the philosophy needed by the nation now—
"ONLY THE GAME FISH SWIMS UP STREAM."
That's the ringing answer to practically all the troubles of the age.

Expanding the Theme
Some time ago we evolved a few verses around this idea. We wonder if a new lot could be arranged? As, for example:

It's easy to drift as the current flows;
It's easy to move as the deep tide goes;
But the answer comes when the breakers crash
And strike the soul with a bitter lash—
When the goal ahead is an endless fight
Through a sunless day and a starless night,
Where the far call breaks on the sleeper's dream,
"Only the game fish swims up stream."

When the clouds bank in—and the soul turns blue—
When Fate holds fast, and you can't break through—
When troubles sweep like a tidal wave,
And Hope is a ghost by an open grave,

And Hope is a ghost by an open grave,
You have reached the test in a frame of mind
Where only the quitters fall behind,
Where the far call breaks on the sleeper's dream,
"Only the game fish swims up stream."

When the clouds bank in—and the soul turns blue—
When Fate holds fast, and you can't break through—
When troubles sweep like a tidal wave,
And Hope is a ghost by an open grave,
You have reached the test in a frame of mind
Where only the quitters fall behind,
Where the far call breaks on the sleeper's dream,
"Only the game fish swims up stream."

Miske Batters Dillon in Fast 10 Round Bout

Jack Dillon, the famous Hoosier Bearcat, gave one of the greatest exhibitions of gameness while taking a fearful beating from Billy Miske of St. Paul, at the Broadway Sporting Club of Brooklyn, last night, that has ever been seen in a local ring.

With both eyes nearly closed for the last three rounds and his face battered into a bloody mass, Dillon kept reeling around the ring, while Miske rained a storm of blows to his rival's bleeding face.

Miske had the better of every round, jabbing fiercely to the head with his left and never failing to follow up with a right cross to the jaw. After
